

Cleveland Humanities
MAGNET PARENT ASSOCIATION

Dear Cleveland Humanities Magnet Parents, Guardians, Community Partners and Friends,

Cleveland Humanities Magnet High School is one of the most prestigious and well-respected programs in public education. To offset the cuts to education over the last several years, we are hosting our 10th Annual COREchella, the highly popular benefit concert that draws more than 1200 attendees. The event takes place on March 27, 2020 on Cleveland High School's football field and includes a fabulous showcase of student musical talent, a Pick-A-Ticket prize drawing, a food truck festival, and this year, the Cleveland High School Band is hosting the Silent Action and VIP (Very Important Parent) Lounge. We also have a celebrity guest host. (Last year our host was Jeff Meacham from ABC's hit show black-ish. The year before our host was Emmy-nominated actress Naomi Grossman, from the TV series American Horror Story. We have also been fortunate to have Jon Huertas, who plays Miguel on the hit NBC show This is Us, Emmy-nominated actors Max Greenfield, from Fox's show New Girl and Rainn Wilson, who played Dwight from The Office as our hosts!)

Our wonderful Cleveland Humanities Magnet families and community members play a critical role in helping the CORE program survive and thrive, and WE NEED YOUR HELP! We are asking all Magnet parents and guardians, as well as friends, family, and businesses that you work for or patronize to consider SPONSORING the program and COREchella.

For additional forms, please visit <http://corechella.corebaby.org/> and click on "Get Involved." Your contributions will be prominently acknowledged and displayed at the event. And remember, 100% of your donation DIRECTLY benefits our students and is tax deductible.

Our non-profit tax ID number is #83-0869045.

Sponsorship checks (made payable to Cleveland Humanities Magnet Parent Association or CHMPA) can be picked up by our volunteers or personally dropped off to the Magnet Office, Room E8, at this address:
